"A light to the revelation of the Gentiles, and the glory of thy people Israel."

-Luke 2:32

January 2025

Dear Parents and Benefactors,

With the feast of Candlemas on the horizon, we meditate especially on the Presentation of Our Lord Jesus Christ and the Purification of the Blessed Virgin Mary. In particular, we might consider St. Simeon, the just and devout man who had the Holy Ghost in him. St. Simeon was a man who was docile to the inspirations of the Holy Ghost and allowed himself to be guided. In doing so he was blessed with not only seeing Our Lord but holding him in his very arms. Consider that St. Simeon could have been anywhere else, but scripture says, "and he came by the Spirit into the temple (Luke 2:27)." May St. Simeon, who was ever docile, pray for us in this new year to have that same docility to the Holy Ghost, which also dwells within our souls.

*Announcements: We are grateful for Mrs. Elizabeth Pauly and her many years of service at Our Lady of Good Success Academy as our art teacher. The students now have me as their art teacher.
